Dear Colleagues,

I trust you are keeping well and looking forward to the festive break.

On behalf of the Commonwealth Secretariat, I just wanted to convey our profound appreciation and gratitude for everything that you and colleagues have done to support and sustain the Commonwealth through a challenging year. A big thank you in particular to everyone who responded to the natural disasters that hit several Commonwealth countries with aid and assistance.

The Secretary-General of the Commonwealth also sends her Season's Greetings to the family of Commonwealth Accredited Organisations. I am pleased to share with you her end-of-the-year video message.

We look forward to working in even closer partnership with you in the new year to advance the values, principles and aspirations enshrined in the Commonwealth Charter.

Very best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year,

Abhik Sen
Head of Innovation & Partnerships
