DECOLONISING EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP

MEET THE SPEAKER

Heather Cateau is a Visiting Senior Research Fellow working on the Shared Island Stories between Scotland and the Caribbean Project at the University of St Andrews, Scotland. Her substantive position is as a senior lecturer in Caribbean History at the University of the West Indies' St. Augustine Campus. She has held the positions of Dean of the Faculty of Humanities and Education, Head of the History Department and University Dean. She has held fellowships at the University of Cambridge, the University of Iowa and the University of St. Andrews. She is also past President of the Association of Caribbean Historians. Her research focus involves a revisionary approach to plantation and enslavement systems in the Caribbean. During this research fellowship she will apply this approach to the eighteenth century enslavement and plantations systems with special concentration on the past connections among communities in Scotland and the Caribbean.
